

I do not believe the FCC should institute federal rules on telephone privacy. I believe each state should be free to institute its own rules. The telephone privacy act in Indiana has greatly reduced the number of sales calls I receive which is greatly appreciated.